

Day 1: Thursday 4 September

Fly to Victoria Falls on British Airways in the morning from Johannesburg. After arriving, take a tour of the Falls or enjoy a warm-up ride in the area. A tour briefing will be held in the evening. Overnight at The Elephant Hills Hotel.

Day 2: Friday 5 September

Early morning set off riding westward towards Botswana. Travel through the Zambezi National Park along the Kazungula Road. Cyclists may have a chance to see some wildlife en route. Leave Zimbabwe and enter Botswana at Kazungula and cycle to The Mowana Lodge, located on the banks of the Chobe River within close proximity to Chobe National Park. Enjoy afternoon game viewing.

Day 3: Saturday 6 September

Depart from Mowana Lodge and cycle along the tarred transit road through the Chobe National Park, and head for the Ngoma Border post with Namibia. At Ngoma leave Botswana and enter Namibia's Caprivi strip. From here travel north west to Katima Malilo where you will stay overnight at The Protea Zambezi River Lodge.

DAY 4: Sunday 7 September

A long 220 km ride through to Livingstone and Victoria Falls, however the road surface is good and essentially it is a gentle downhill ride! From Livingstone, you will be able to view the Victoria Falls from the Zambian side of the river before cycling over the famous old bridge across the Zambezi river and back into Victoria Falls, where you will stay overnight at The Victoria Falls Hotel. Evening at leisure.

DAY 5: Monday 8 September

Formal cycling is over and you can enjoy a free day in and around the Falls experiencing the many exciting sporting activities on offer. Farewell dinner and celebration at The Victoria Falls Hotel.

DAY 6: Tuesday 9 September

Fly back to Johannesburg at lunchtime, or alternatively take advantage of one of several add-on wildlife packages in the region offered by Wilderness Safaris.
